Open House Rules

- No newspapers, flyers, brochures, etc. may be displayed in the lobby areas (including the elevator lobbies located on each floor).
- No agent may be seated in the ground floor lobby area at any given time.
- An information marquee (easel board) must be placed inside the lobby entrance (but visible from the outside) indicating the Unit(s) being shown and the realtor(s) phone number(s). The easel board is stored in the Sorrento's billiard room, under the sink.
- The realtor must meet the client(s) in the lobby and must accompany them to and from the Unit(s) being shown. Clients are not allowed on any floor or Common Elements unaccompanied.
- Brochures may only be displayed in the unit, or temporarily on the table located under the lobby stairway.
- Realtors are reminded that during Hurricane Season the Board of Directors require all fans and furniture from unprotected lanais be kept inside of the Unit. Any furniture moved to these areas for showings must be returned inside.
- Water is turned off to unoccupied Units. Public restrooms are located on the lobby level outside of the Fitness Room.
